INDIVIDUALS IN PROGRESS/PROCESS

Wesleyan's year of 1976-77 was a year of individuals, a time for unique people. It was one of progress and process; some of us grew and changed; some of us just changed. Some learned and prospered; others just existed from day to day. Some found the year a time of creativity and productivity; others saw it as merely a period of biding time, of treading water. But however each of us saw it, 1976-77 was an experience — a true Wesleyan experience — of INDIVIDUALS.

Each of us remembers certain individuals in his own life here at Weslevan who brought special joy and meaning to the ironically long yet fleeting college days. We love them all, both for the ways in which they touched our lives then and for the memories and places they have in our lives now. Some of those special persons were a favorite guy or girl; some were a husband or wife; some professors or administrators; some were young, some old; all were friends.

*All the special gifts and powers from God will someday come to an end, but Love goes on forever.
— 1 Corinthians 13*

To be nobody but yourself in a world which is doing its best, night and day, to make you like everybody else means to fight the hardest battle which any human being can fight; and never stop fighting.

— e. e. cummings

*The best way to know
Life is to Love many things. — Vincent Van Gogh*

We enjoyed many days with these individuals; we enjoyed doing many different things
... walking in the summer sun, absorbing the snowy beauty of the harsh winter, loving the "little" things in God's world

The institution itself contributed a great deal to the year — both the outer shell and the meaning within as individuals combined efforts to produce: we remember council; choirs; bands; programming; sports teams and supporters; publications staffs; RIC; faculty groups; religious and social fraternities and sororities; the many organizations that cooperated to make the year different; and those individuals who helped during the day-to-day living at Wesleyan.

*If you have friends, don't be afraid to express your friendship; don't be afraid to tell them that you admire or love them.
If you love anybody, why not say so?
If you enjoy anyone's company, why not say so?
It costs you nothing; it may mean everything to your friendship.
Friendship is no one-sided affair, but an exchange of soul qualities.
There can be no friendship without reciprocity.
One cannot receive all and give nothing, or give all and receive nothing, and expect to experience the joy and fullness of true companionship. — Orison Swett Marden*

Life is a wave, which in no two consecutive moments of its existence is composed of the same particles.
— John Tyndall

Nature was a large part of being an individual — Wesleyan offered the beauty of mountains and valleys and the people who live there. It also gave us the joys of Nature nearer to us, and perhaps nearer to our hearts — trees, flowers, animals, sun, stars, and all the love of Life

Students, Faculty Experience Indian Summer

During the summer of 1976 several members of the Wesleyan community toured the southwestern United States as part of Indian Studies under the direction of Sociology professor Dr. John Warner. The Indian world and nations welcomed Wesleyan students and faculty as they traveled the outside world.

In the world of politics, W. Vo. Wesleyan College is never far behind. At the top of their list of achievements is the fact that the current governor of West Virginia, John D. Rockefeller IV, was the school's twelfth president.

Also, during the last gubernatorial campaign, opposition to Rockefeller, Cecil Underwood, made himself known to Wesleyan students during his Campus Tours.

But on the local side of the news, students participate in politics, too. On campus are the active groups of Community Council, the governing body of the Wesleyan community, Residence Hall Council, students who work to make improvements and repairs in the dorms, Young Democrats and Young Republicans, young people taking an active interest in their party's goings-on, and Class Officers, elected to run their respective classes.

These facets of Wesleyan life certainly prove the statement, "The students of today are the leaders of tomorrow."

Nature — so ordinary and commonplace, yet so very much a vital portion of life. Some notice . . . many don't. The few who see, look, and touch receive riches in abundance. Those who simply pass by may never know the joy of nature as it surrounds them. Some care little . . . others could not comfortably exist without the changes that nature imparts. Wesleyan, viewed in this context, takes on new meanings — new understandings. Embodied within the natural surrounding both inside and outside of the Wesleyan community, one can sense the changing seasons, adjusting with the cycles of nature, viewing the world as it begins and ends . . . and begins again. A joyous celebration of life — the exaltation of being — alive, aware — vital resources given to those who comprehend — to those who take the time to see.

Queen Gail Reigns Over the "Small, Small World" of Wesleyan

LEFT: Michelle Berry, having given her roses to the Queen, is given a mum of her own to hold.

The inauguration of Ronald E. Sleeth as the 13th president of WVWC opened a weekend of tradition, as the campus participated in the events of Homecoming 1976. President Sleeth performed his first presidential duty by crowning Gail Chapman, a nursing major from Wayne, New Jersey as the 1976 Homecoming Queen. CCPB presented three groups for Friday nights' concert. "Stoneground" and "Hamilton, Joe Frank, and Dennison" gave performances well received by the campus community. "The Amazing Rhythm Aces," disappointed many. The theme of "It's a small, small world," was apparent Saturday morning as the dorms were decorated and campus groups participated in the annual parade. Fleming Hall took first place in dorm decoration, Alpha Xi Delta took the award for the best float, while Theta Xi and Kappa Phi received first place in banner competition. Alumni, parents, friends, and students enjoyed a picnic lunch on Jenkin's lawn and then proceeded to cheer the Babcats in their noble effort, ending in defeat, against Waynesburg. Parties at the Homecoming Dance rounded out activities on Saturday, and Homecoming 1976, could, for the most part, be labeled a success.

Inauguration

Ronald E.
Sleeth Is Installed

Thirteenth
President

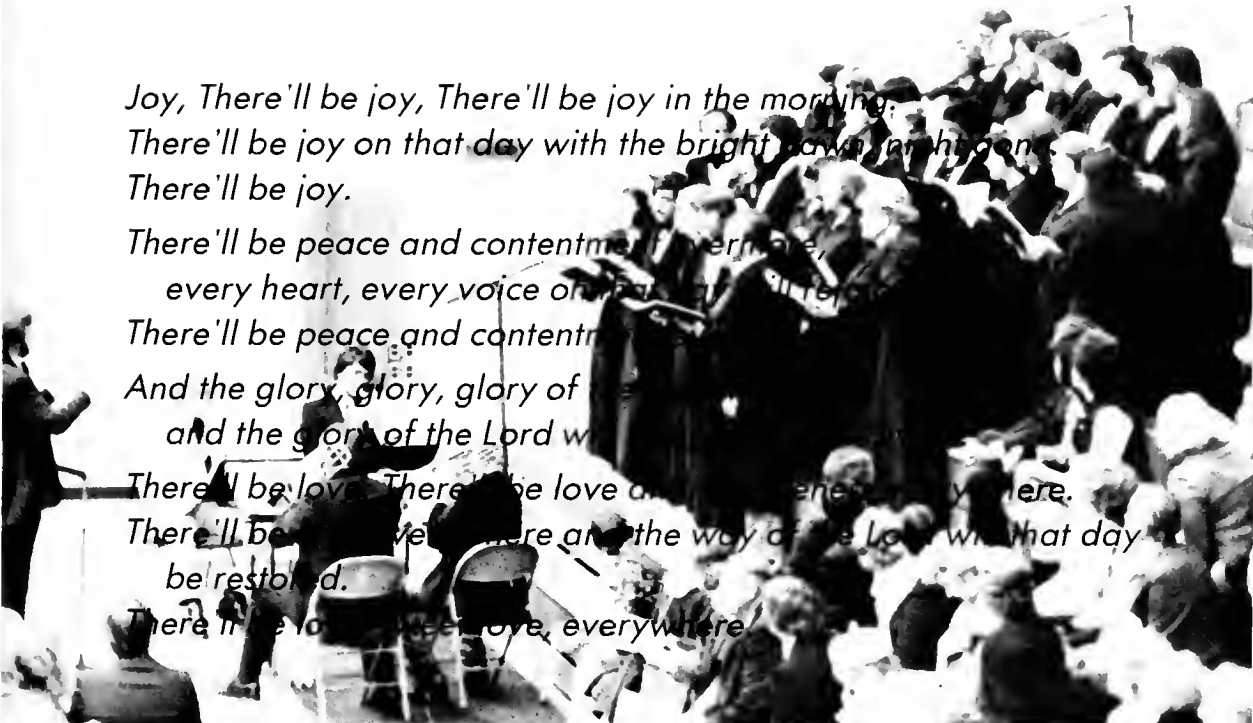

President Sleeth enjoys the inauguration speech delivered by Mr. Poul Hardin, Drew University President.

Dr. Ronald E. Sleeth leaves the gymnasium as the thirteenth president of West Virginia Wesleyan College.

*Joy, There'll be joy, There'll be joy in the morning,
 There'll be joy on that day with the bright dawn in the sun.
 There'll be joy.
 There'll be peace and contentment everywhere,
 every heart, every voice of praise will be there.
 There'll be peace and contentment everywhere,
 And the glory, glory, glory of the Lord and the glory of the Lord will be there.
 There'll be love, There'll be love and the way of the Lord
 There'll be love and the way of the Lord will be restored.
 There'll be love and the way of the Lord will be restored.
 There'll be love and the way of the Lord will be restored.*

The tour choir sings Mrs. Natalie Sleeth's specially prepared inaugural piece, "Joy in the Morning" that she dedicated to the tour chair.

By twelve noon on Friday, October 22, 1977, Ronald E. Sleeth had officially been installed as the chief executive of West Virginia Wesleyan College. Inaugural events began the preceding evening with musical entertainment by Mrs. Linda Gamble, the tour chair, and the jazz band in an "Evening of Music." The following day, representatives from numerous colleges and universities joined students, faculty, staff, administration, and many other guests for the colorful inauguration ceremony. The tour chair premiered an original composition, "Joy in the Morning" that was prepared for the occasion by Mrs. Natalie Sleeth. After addresses by representatives of the campus community and investiture of the academic symbols of the office, Mr. Paul Hardin, Drew University President, presented the inaugural address. A reception and a picnic featuring "Trapezoid" concluded the inauguration activities.

Bev Remley needs stilts as she gave President Sleeth the presidential medallion.

Jim Schmunk presents the presidential mace that was donated to Wesleyan by Richard A. Cunningham, former Vice President for Student Affairs.

Christmas

Hanging of the Greens Brings the "Spirit of Christmas" to Wesleyan

Tim Reed and Sandy Thomas pull into place a piece of rope, soon to be covered with greenery.

RIGHT: After the tree is lighted, a group of Wesleyan coeds lingers, taking in its beauty.

Martha Brian places a sprig of holly on the Christmas wreath.

"Oh Little Town of Bethlehem" is sung by candlelight prior to the lighting of the Christmas tree.

A fully crowded chapel sings Christmas carols as Kappa Phi members carry newly-made banners.

The "Hanging of the Greens" is a traditional Christmas ceremony at Wesleyan that officially begins the Christmas season on campus. Students make ropes and wreaths of pine to decorate the chapel, and musical organizations and the sacred dance choir spend many hours preparing for the event.

On the night of the "Hanging of the Greens" the Shannan Bells ring out the most popular Christmas carols which help set people in a Christmas mood. Then, students, faculty, and staff come to the chapel to celebrate the coming of Christmas, sing Christmas carols, and listen to various talks on the "meaning of Christmas." After the presentations are finished, everyone carries a lighted candle outside and gathers to watch President Sleeth light the Christmas tree.

The "Hanging of the Greens" is one of the most popular and beautiful ceremonies at Wesleyan not only because of the wreaths of pine or the Shannan Bells but also because of the feeling of Christmas cheer and "good will towards men." The excitement and "Spirit of Christmas" brings the Wesleyan campus closer together.

Snow turned the Wesleyan campus into a "Winter Wonderland."

Christmas

Christmas Is a Time for Celebration

"Oh, the weather outside is frightful, but the fire is so delightful, and since there's no place to go, Let it snow, Let it snow, Let it snow."

The magic of Christmas comes again and again and again.

Christmas . . . a time for personal celebration, personal involvement. Quiet moments spent with precious company or in solitude, lost in memories, lost in dreams.

. . . a time of rushed excitement and solemn anticipation; seeing the world through the eyes of a child — back to innocent happiness. Sincere wishes; fleeting notes of carols and songs floating through the crisp air.

. . . a time of wishing for snow and frantic last-minute shopping; enjoying the warm feeling of giving to loved ones and friends; the giving of oneself. Remembrances of Christmases past and expectations for Christmases to come.

Christmas . . . a quiet time, a lovely time. Prayers for peace and good will; visions of the Christ Child; the very miracle of the season filling the heart with warmth and love.

...time of joy, or a time of sorrow
...phase of our lifetimes... we leave the
...security... all the... into the "rat race"
...one... and...
...question is: when our dreams have a chance to ...become realities. Some of us may get married and ...start families. Others will go out on our own and ...make a living. No matter to which direction we ...turn, chances are we will always remember the
...friends we made during college.

While today may seem like an end to a part of our lives, it is definitely an open door to the future. But our memories will remain prominent during our lifetimes. These memories, both good and bad, will be tucked away in a little corner of our minds (and hearts) where it will be available at our convenience.

Students Experience the Details, Hassles of Obtaining an Education

Smile Pretty! It has to last for four years!

Coach Hess helps Harry Chipchase make sure he fulfills graduation requirements.

Paula Lawther wonders if her schedule will ever work out.

"You just got the last card!" exclaims Kay Carpenter as a lucky coed gets the last card for a much needed class.

Students wait in line to sell used books.

"It's not as bad as it seems. You could really owe the $500 balance we have recorded on your bill."

"You want to drap everything?!"

Scheduling classes, pre-registration, buying and selling books and paying bills are all details and hassles one must endure in the educational process. Realizing that the only possible time for a required class is 8:00 a.m., needing three classes that all meet at 11:15, buying eighty dollars worth of books and selling them at a buck a piece, receiving another confusing bill from the bursar's office . . . life at Wesleyan.

STUDY!
STUDY!
STUDY!

TOP LEFT: Kothy Webb spends the evening with her books and an Uncala.
TOP RIGHT: There's always the library when the dorms are too noisy.
MIDDLE: Bud Cook studies where "girl watching" is convenient.
BOTTOM: "One more page of Faulkner and I'll be asleep!"

Ann Beadling and Barb Luebbe find the SCOW, by some add chance, quiet enough for studying.

Clayton Tenney finishes last minute assignments before graduation.

A cup of coffee makes Scuba's music easier.

In the SCOW, at the library, at home in bed, in the great outdoors, with a friend or a whole group of people or by oneself — studying must, on occasion, be done . . . for some more often than others! Some are organized to the envy of the many who procrastinate to the point of spending late hours writing papers or cramming for tests. Yet somehow, somewhere, studying must be done for the learning and growing that life at WWVC is all about.

Home Economics Department Gains New and Expanded Cottage

Home Ec students experience all the conveniences of modern living with a dishwasher, microwave oven and other equipment.

Built and furnished through funds provided by the endowment of Edna Jenkins, the new Edna Jenkins House serves as a live-in laboratory for Home Ec majors. Four girls at a time share the modern one-story house, each sharing the responsibilities of management and maintenance of a home.

Marsha Lewis and Debbie Vance relax in the family living area of the new Home Ec cottage.

All the comforts of home.

Signed, sealed, delivered — I'm yours!

I see by our books that we're way off the budget.

Contract Learning Offers Many Opportunities for Varied Academic Experiences

Bill Hamilton works on the mini-computer he designed for contract credit.

Koren Mitter talks with an elderly person who is a client in her "Telephone Reassurance" program.

Contract Learning is an alternative method of gaining specific skills or knowledge not provided in the regular curriculum, of gaining on-the-job training for a career field. The possibilities for Learning Contracts are limited only by the initiative and imagination of the student and the extent to which cooperation can be obtained from businesses, agencies, or individuals.

Contract Learning provides opportunities for pre-professional experience that gives a student a chance to explore vocations and prepare, through practical application, for future careers. The student gets a change of pace from classroom routine and a personalized educational program.

Wesleyan Unknowingly Sees Final Free Term

Coach Myers' Ski class poses for a parting picture as they head for Snowshoe and the slopes.

Students in Appalachian Studies class tour a local deep mine.

Free Term 1977, a one-month concentrated learning experience during January, provided unique educational opportunities. Classes ranging from traditional requirements to innovative courses were offered. Students traveled to Snowshoe and Mexico while others worked and learned in other off-campus areas.

Following the '77 Free Term was the cold weather-inflicted energy crisis and the ensuing three-week "gas break," a situation which forced administrators to cancel the term on campus in the upcoming year.

Students Spend Many Hours in Class

Dr. Robert O'Brien toposes his radio course episode on courtly love.

Dr. Eugene Anderson explains a mathematical table.

Jim Boy finds that sometimes, "it does not compute."

A motley group of sopranos and altos await yet another sectional rehearsal to break up its studying.

Learning Involves Practical Application

Art students display the results of a semester's toil and labor.

Leslie White works in one of the many blood pressure clinics set up throughout Upshur County by Wesleyan's Nursing Department.

Music majors, such as Peter Infanger, spend hours and hours preparing for lessons, recitals and performances.

The German class enjoys a taste of Deutsch cuisine.

MAGIC

"A Night of Magic" makes Camille Saint Saen's poem, depicting midnight on Hallowe'en, come alive on stage.

Performers Bonnie Piper, Dove Pennington, George Evono, Ben Sincell and Jeff Whitmon rehearse a dance scene.

Ben Sincell wrote, choreographed and planned the special effects for his own magic show.

A NIGHT OF MAGIC

Drama, dance, music and mime were combined by student magician Ben Sincell in a two-act theatrical show that utilized magic as a natural and logical part of the dramatic plot. The first act, entitled "The Time Machine," and the second, "Dance Macabre" involved 30 assistants both on and off stage, making the fantasy world an on-stage reality.

Production Staffs Make Drama Presentations Run Smoothly and Effectively

Stage crews move heavy equipment on stage as part of the building material for sets.

The dirty floor gets a new look with the crew's paint job.

Technical Director Bill Turner spends many hours supervising set construction and other technical aspects of drama productions.

Bev Remley and Carol Churchill sell tickets for "A Night of Magic."

Many hours of practice are supervised by directors, technical assistants and stage managers.

Jeff Whitman ages sixty years in an hour as Bill Turner applies make-up.

Costumes, tickets, lighting, sets, props, make-up, publicity — all are necessary to the production of a successful show. These behind the scenes jobs, so often lost within the glory of the acting, consume many hours of hard work of dozens of students throughout the year. Under the excellent direction of Bill Turner, production staffs made Wesleyan's drama presentations run smoothly and effectively.

LOVE SHINE
"Love Shine"
Presents a Message
Through Drama

Love Shine, a religious dramo group, under the direction of Paul Brown, a recent Wesleyan graduote, consisted of over thirty ovtive, enthusiastic students. In its first year of existence, Love Shine let the love of Christ shine through a variety of dramatic experiences that were totolly planned, prepered and presented by group members. Skits and workshops were examples of the creative program agendas that varied with each presentation according to the needs of the audience. These thought-provoking, moving programs were given for groups throughout West Virginio and Pennsylvania as well as at Wesleyan.

Black Awareness Week Offers Opportunities To Learn About Black Culture

The JBC Band performs for a dance during Black Awareness Week.

Held during the week of March 6-12, the 1977 Black Awareness Week proved to be the most successful for the Black Student Coalition in its four year existence. The week began on Sunday morning with the Chapel message delivered by Dr. Frank Horton. The week was finalized with a concert directed by the world-renowned musicologist Jester Hairston. Also during the week were a lecture by Attorney Franklin Cleckley from WVU, and a dramatic prose and poetry performance by Vinnie Burrows.

Dr. Jester Hairston entertains a Wesleyan audience with tales of Black history during a concert of combined Wesleyan choirs singing Hairston's Afro-American folk songs.

Many couples enjoyed the week's activities, especially the JBC concert/dance.

Wesleyan's football squad began the 1976 season with high hopes, but saw it end with several heartbreaking defeats. The Cats defeated only West Virginia Tech and Geneva to post an 2-8-0 record. The campaign could be best typified by the homecoming contest with Waynesburg, Pennsylvania. Wesleyan led the entire game only to fumble the ball in the waning seconds and watch Waynesburg march down the field. Then, following a most controversial pass interference call, the Yellow Jackets connected on a field goal with no time on the clock to squeak out a 22-21 win over the stunned Bobcats. Despite the poor season record, offensive lineman Gary Hawkins and Jeff Matthews were selected to the all-conference team, while defensive performers Barry Myers, Chris Patella, and Danny Griffith, split end Keith DiPasquale, and fullback J. J. McGuire were honorable mention picks to the select squad.

Women's Field Hockey Team Has Repetitive Season

"Two" seems to be the bogey number for the Bobcat field hockey squad under Coach Caroline Harnar which took second place in the state for the second year running, ending with another 5-2 record.

Finishing behind Davis and Elkins, the only team to have beaten Wesleyan in two seasons. Success next year seems to depend on the even greater realization that solid teamwork along with improved skills will be needed to beat Davis and Elkins.

THE YEAR OF THE CAT

Excitement and success could best explain the basketball season. The Bobcats posted a 15-9 record, and captured the WVIAC Tournament Championship in Charleston. The stunning week in Charleston was not only exciting for the team, but gave the campus something to talk about for several weeks. After downing Davis and Elkins and Concord in the first two rounds, the Cats stunned the entire state when freshman Jim Brogan hit a 15 foot jump shot with no time on the clock to upset nationally ranked Fairmont State 67-66. The following evening, Wesleyan won the title with a hard fought 77-69 victory over Morris Harvey. Freshman John Bates was the Most Valuable Player in the five day event, while he, Brogan, and Bill Thomas were selected to the all-tournament team. Other standouts in the tournament included Mark Davis, Glenn Pietras, Jerry Gatewood, and Willie Jones, while Don Filip, Mike Cardamone, and Tim Dixon gave the squad solid bench strength. The Cats faced Fairmont the following week in a playoff to determine the WVIAC'S representative in the NAIA Tournament. The Falcons won both contests, thus ending the tournament champs' dreams of a trip to Kansas City. Besides the late season excitement, the Cats also did well throughout the year, winning the Lewis Country Shrine Tournament, along with several other conference wins. In addition, Wesleyan lost a heartbreaking 79-77 decision to the University of Pittsburgh. Coach Gary Hess was selected West Virginia Coach of the Year, while Bates and Thomas earned all-conference honors.

The Babcat tennis team again posted a winning season with a 6-3-1 record and a fifth place finish in the WVIAC. Top performers throughout the spring included Friday Nwoku, Ed Kroupo and Andy Thomas. Nwoku was undefeated in nine matches during the regular season in singles competition, while Kroupo pasted an 8-2 record. Thomas was 5-3 on the campaign, while he and Kroupo combined for a fine 7-2 doubles mark. Other top performers included Chris Comegys, Rusty Manley, Parke Walfe, and Chuck Shaheen. Coach George Klebez will have all of his net men returning for next year's squad, thus giving the Cats plenty of optimism for the 1978 campaign.

PHAROS PHAROS PHAROS PHAROS PHA

Bev Remley — Editor

The PHAROS staff struggled through another year attempting to report campus news and to act as the voice of student opinion. Anyone, who saw a bleary-eyed student with writer's cramp and a smudge on his nose but still with ears perked and beagle-nose hot on the trail of a story, could be assured that the PHAROS would be issued again next week.

The newspaper, along with its usual news, features and sports stories, carried stories sure to arouse the controversial spirits of a few. But the controversy did not arise where the staff expected it might. Alas, while Atkinson Auditorium was in a state of disrepair, tuition was going up, January Term was an endangered species and members of an athletic team were suspended for participation in Greek Week activities, controversy focused on such all important items as PHAROS comment on a PENTHOUSE story on John D. Rockefeller, IV; on whether a hypnotist should perform in Wesley Chapel and on Steve Beatty's satirical insult to the Wesleyan community.

ROS PHAROS PHAROS PHAROS PHAROS

Still, the staff worked on and if one sauntered near the PHAROS room he could hear Bev Remley, editor, wondering aloud, "I wonder if we can publish a paper with a blank front page" while Debbie Shipley, managing editor, and Sue Say could be heard bewailing "how can we fit three stories in a space for one?" Meanwhile, Steve Beatty, Assistant Editor, and Ken Matheny Sports Editor, played nerf basketball making circles around Features Editor Maryta Pankiewicz, who was down on her knees crying "But you can't cut my story." And above all this bustle resounded Carol L. Churchill, "You should have heard what Community Council said about this week's issue!" One could then walk away thinking "Everything is going as usual in the PHAROS office."

The Campus Community Program Board offers to the students of Wesleyan many varied types of entertainment, involvement and just plain fun. The entertainment comes from all the committees. The events range from films, to concerts like Mory McGregor, to bike races and billiards tournaments. CCPB has sponsored several dances and coffeehouses as well. They also brought us experiences such as James Mapes and Keith Burger.

The involvement may happen by accident, for example, playing the Harlem Wizards, or it may be deliberate by acting as a chairperson or member of a committee.

The fun comes with every smile and successful event the Program Board sponsors.

This year the Bobcadettes have been busy hustling to the tunes of BEETHOVEN'S FIFTH SYMPHONY and the Chicago hit OLD DAYS. The girls added a bit of spirit to the football field each game and are now looking forward to the return of the marching season next fall.

Marching Band

During the 1977 fall season, President Sleeth honored the band at the Waynesburg game by directing Wesleyan's fight song. President Sleeth is pictured with student director Jude Gore. Below, saxophonist Jim Watson takes time off from a rehearsal for a coloring book.

Marching band is a unique group of talented musicians who brave the sleet, snow, wind, and rain to perform at the Babcats' football games. They performed shows in the 1976 season to arrangements of Chicago's "Old Days," "Ease on Down the Road" from "The Wiz," and "Beethoven's Fifth" rock style. A successful season was enjoyed by Mr. Milburn and the band.

"Olah, if I've told you once I've told you a thousand times . . ."

Members of the band also performed during the hanging of the greens.

The Jazz Ensemble had an extremely exciting year and one with several highlights. The 21-member band had the honor of tapping off the President's Evening of Music on the eve of President Sleeth's inauguration in October.

Throughout the year they were featured in Jazz Festivals at Marshall University and West Virginia University where they were lauded far not only excellence in performance but taste in musical selections. After returning from a successful tour of the Northeastern United States these outstanding musicians performed here at Wesleyan and in Charleston for the Governor. Under the very able direction of David Milburn the band enjoyed a truly special and rewarding year.

The West Virginia Wesleyan Tour Choir is a select vocal ensemble composed of men and women interested in choral performance. Chosen through audition, the students represent most of the academic disciplines offered on Wesleyan's campus. A major function of the forty voice choir is the Spring Tour. In 1977, under the direction of Instructor James Schuppener, the choir traveled through the central states. The Wesleyan Tour Choir is also responsible for providing music for various activities throughout the year.

The purpose of Religious Life Council is to plan and to coordinate religious activities of the campus and to promote campus-church relations. The Council is interdenominational in organization and function. Seeking to minister to the needs of others, RLC sponsors such activities as Stamp Out Starvation, Fast Day and Holbrook Nursing Home Visitation. The council ministers to the spiritual and devotional life of the campus in such varied activities as Your Thing With God, Thursday Night Communion, Friday Night Fellowship, rural church visitation, an annual Preaching Mission, the traditional Hanging of the Greens Service and an Ecumenical Service. RLC provides such social events as square dances, films, retreats, picnics and a reception for graduating seniors. The Council seeks to minister to the student as a whole person, providing opportunities for character and moral development in a Christian atmosphere.

Council on Ministries on the Campus of WWC acts much in the same way as a council on ministries would work in a local church. In working closely with RLC it helps to coordinate the activities directly related to the Chapel. The Council's four work areas are Social Concerns, Community Life and Discipline, Ecumenical Affairs and Education.

Moving . . . Expanding . . . Growing . . . Improving . . . Helping . . . Giving . . . Caring. These words have characterized SVP this year. Two new branches (handicapped and sweatsacks) were added to the previous branches (elderly, tutoring, recreation, and publicity) to help expand the program. The number of volunteer hours was also doubled as approximately eighty volunteers donated over 1800 volunteer hours. These services extended into the Community of Buckhannon tying the college with the town.

The debate teams travel over the United States competing in intercollegiate competition. Shown here are the two teams that competed at Jahn Hopkins University. Shown with the trophy they won are ROW 1: LEFT TO RIGHT: Greg Goodykoontz, Toni Burnette. ROW 2: Cathy Hevner and Dave Pennington. The team of G. Goodykoontz and T. Burnette finished 6-2 and C. Hevner and D. Pennington finished 4-4.

The debate teams present arguments on a pre-arranged topic on United States government policy throughout the academic year. This year the subject was consumer protection. The teams will take part in approximately twenty-five tournaments per year.

They try to have two public debates on campus during the school term as well.

They also sponsor both high school and college tournaments on campus to encourage participation in debate.

The teams are required to do extensive research on their arguments; they must edit the information and file it on cards for reference during the actual debate. They formulate arguments on the broader general outline. They must be prepared to argue both the positive and negative aspects of their topics. They must also be prepared to argue against another team's interpretation of the main general question.

This year the teams of Greg Goodykoontz and Toni Burnette, and Jim Stealey and Becky Gass competed in national competition. Greg and Toni were the second seeded team in the district competition and finished 6-2 in the preliminary rounds.

The coaches for debate this year were Ben Snyder and Stuart Hammel who, between the two of them, have sent three teams to the national debate tournaments in the last three years.

Phi Kappa Phi

Dr. Ernest Capstack signs the charter to establish the beginning of the Wesleyan Chapter of Phi Kappa Phi.

Wesleyan is indeed honored to have established this year on campus a chapter of one of the two finest national honoraries, Phi Kappa Phi.

Ground work has been made for the past six to seven years to bring this organization to Wesleyan.

Until this year the major academic honorary on campus was Sigma Eta Sigma, which was not a national honorary but a campus one. Its requirements were to have junior or senior rank, a 3.35 overall average, and a strong moral character. But, as of this spring, Phi Kappa Phi will take over that standing. The two organizations will co-exist for this year only, and Sigma Eta Sigma will fade away and disappear with the upcoming 77-78 year.

Phi Kappa Phi is allowed to select 5% of the second semester junior class and 10% of the present senior class for initiation. The juniors are selected the spring semester of the academic year. The 10% of the seniors are selected each fall with the previous spring junior 5% making up half of their total 10%. Then the same year another 5% of new juniors are added. Although the requirements are basically the same, the overall GPA standard will raise as a result of the top 10% of the senior class being initiated. Phi Kappa Phi is permitted, but not required, to initiate juniors, but the Wesleyan chapter will do so. The Sigma Eta Sigma honorary elected both juniors and seniors who had a 3.35 average.

Due to the time factor in establishing Phi Kappa Phi, there was only time for spring initiation last year. All of the faculty members of Sigma Eta Sigma were initiated into Phi Kappa Phi.

Phi Kappa Phi had to be established from existing faculty members of the campus community who had been added to the organization during their graduate or undergraduate work.

The charter members of the Wesleyan chapter are, Dr. Ernest Capstack, Dr. Douglas Medlin, Dr. Roy Curry, Dr. David Hill, Dr. Ben Martin, Dr. Joseph Mow, Dr. Samuel Hollingsworth, and Dr. Demetrious Papedemetriou. They signed the charter given to them this spring by Dr. James Barr from North Eastern University, who is a national officer of Phi Kappa Phi and who represented national. The president of Phi Kappa Phi is Dr. Capstack.

The officers, except for two (vice-president and treasurer), are required to be faculty members. Students fulfill the other two. The basic goals of Phi Kappa Phi are to improve the quality of the academic life on campus and to uphold academic values. It hopes to take existing programs and by working with other honoraries strengthen those programs that show strong academic quality. Although it will take a few years for Phi Kappa Phi to be firmly established it is an organization Wesleyan should feel fortunate and privileged.

Erin K. Horan

"If you would indeed behold the spirit of death, open your heart wide unto the body of life.

For life and death are one, even as the river and the sea are one.

In the depths of your hopes and desires lies your silent knowledge of the beyond;

And like seeds dreaming beneath the snow your heart dreams of spring.

Trust the dreams for in them is hidden the gate to eternity.

Your fear of death is but the trembling of the shepherd when he stands before the king whose hand is to be laid upon him in honor.

Is the shepherd not joyful beneath his trembling that he shall wear the mark of the king?

Yet is he not more mindful of his trembling?"

Kahlil Gibran

Life is but a dream
That unwilling we wake from
And oft it is a peaceful night
Ere dawn doth catch us up in her
Dewey fingered web
Yet on occasion
Eager dawn doth early victim strike
And the pleasant dreams of sleepers
Do to nightmares turn
Yet in time
Our dreams do smile
And we think upon the pleasures
Brought by those now gone
And how their shortened stay
Had brightened our sleepy lives

Jeffrey R. Tellman
Freshman Class of 1975-76

Steve J. Vannoy
Junior Class of 1976-77

"For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind and to melt into the sun
And what is it to cease breathing, but to free the breath from its restless tides, That it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered?
Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you sing.
And when you have reached the mountain top, then you shall begin to climb
And when the earth claims your limb, then shall you truly dance."

Kahlil Gibran

Walk on a rainbow trail;
Walk on a trail of song,
And all about you will be beauty.
There is a way out of every dark mist,
Over a rainbow trail.

Navajo Song
